

CENTRE FOR SOCIAL IMPACT

First Anniversary: $12.7M contributed, nearly 2M people impacted

Purpose: To disrupt inequity in wellbeing through movement, mindfulness, and advocacy. Focus areas include: Community, Global, and Maker Wellbeing, and Frontline Wellbeing & Crisis Response.

GLOBAL WELLBEING

$5M

to organizations serving marginalized communities globally including the Girls Opportunity Alliance, National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI)

1.35M

people globally accessed wellbeing tools and resources through Global Wellbeing grantees

$600K

to Musqueam, Squamish, and Tsleil-Waututh nations as part of our commitment to support Indigenous communities

COMMUNITY WELLBEING

$2.3M

to 80 community organizations across the globe through 2021 Here to Be grant

200K

people positively impacted through 2021 Here to Be grant

MAKER WELLBEING

$2.25M

to CARE Made by Women, The Resilience Fund for Women in Global Value Chains, and Women Win to support the wellbeing and economic resilience of women in global supply chains

$200K

in grants disbursed, funding 14 projects from 12 lululemon suppliers in 9 countries

FRONTLINE WELLBEING & CRISIS RESPONSE

$1.25M

to the United Nations Foundation Peace on Purpose program supporting humanitarian workers to the Center for Reproductive Rights to support choice and access to reproductive healthcare

$500K